

It's Time for Summer Camp Again!

Camden's two Episcopal churches, St Paul's and St. Andrew's, provide a Bible-based camp experience, "Camp Faith" for more than 50 of the city's four-to twelve year olds. Arts, crafts, cooking, swimming, athletics, games, performance, and day trips are offered in an atmosphere of Bible stories and praise.

The program also provides employment for ten to twelve young people (ages fourteen to eighteen) who earn a small stipend and gain work and leadership experience as camp counselors.

The total cost of the five-week program in 2009 was $23,000 or $16 per camper, per day. In 2010, the Girl's Friendly Society has already committed $8,000 to the program. These two vital Camden churches look to their friends in the suburban parishes for additional support. Last year, individual Christ Church, Riverton parishioners contributed a total of $1,800- nearly the full summer cost for five campers.

Can you pay for a camper's day at $16____, or a week at $80____, two weeks at $160____, half of the cost at $200____or the full program for one camper at $400_____?

Please contact Florence Thompson (778-0241) at the 8 o'clock Service or Keith Betten (786-1914) at the 10 o'clock, to arrange to contribute to this fun and important program

Blessings!
